the 1990s, the number of people with a mental health problem has increased by 50% (Mental Health Foundation 1999). The prevalence of mental health problems has increased in all age groups, but the increase has been most marked in the young (Mental Health Foundation 1999).

There is a growing awareness of the need to address the mental health needs of young people. The Department of Health (1999) has published a strategy for mental health care for young people, which sets out a vision for the future of mental health care for young people. The strategy is based on the following principles:

- Young people should be able to access mental health services when they need them.
- Mental health services should be integrated with other services, such as education and social services.
- Mental health services should be based on the needs of young people.
- Mental health services should be delivered in a way that is acceptable to young people.

The strategy also sets out a number of key objectives for the future of mental health care for young people. These include:

- To reduce the number of young people with mental health problems who are in contact with the criminal justice system.
- To improve the mental health of young people who are in contact with the criminal justice system.
- To improve the mental health of young people who are in contact with the health service.

The strategy also sets out a number of key actions for the future of mental health care for young people. These include:

- To develop a national network of mental health services for young people.
- To develop a national network of mental health services for young people who are in contact with the criminal justice system.

the 1990s, the number of people in the UK who are employed in the public sector has increased by 1.5 million, from 2.5 million in 1980 to 4 million in 1995. The public sector has become a major employer in the UK, and its growth has been a major factor in the overall growth of the economy.

The public sector has also become a major provider of social services, and its growth has been a major factor in the overall growth of the economy. The public sector has become a major provider of social services, and its growth has been a major factor in the overall growth of the economy.

Our Bishop

Most Reverend John F. Noll, D.D., was born in Fort Wayne in 1875. He was educated at St. Lawrence College in Wisconsin, and was ordained in 1898 from Mt. St. Mary's Seminary, Cincinnati, Ohio. He is the founder (1912) and editor of Our Sunday Visitor, leading Catholic newspaper. In 1917 he received his LL.D. from Notre Dame. He erected Victory-Noll, a Missionary Catechist training school at Huntington. He was consecrated Bishop of the Fort Wayne Diocese, June 30, 1925. Bishop Noll is the author of several popular Catholic books and pamphlets. His contributions to Catholic welfare have made Bishop Noll one of the most beloved figures in the Church today.

Under the leadership of His Excellency Bishop John Francis Noll, D.D., LL.D., and our principal, Rev. A. J. Junk, this long-anticipated addition to our school has become a reality. On July 7, 1946, the cornerstone was laid. The name of the school was changed from Catholic Central to Bishop Noll High School, in recognition of our benefactor, Most Reverend John F. Noll. The addition is one of the most modern school buildings in the Calumet region.

Our Patron Father Marquette

Two hundred and fifty years ago, Father Marquette, a Jesuit priest, explored the Mississippi River and the Great Lakes territory for France. He did work that was invaluable to the Church. He labored among the Calumet Indians in the region where Bishop Noll High School now stands. From Fr. Marquette they learned the principles of Catholicity. Today, these same principles are instilled in the students at Bishop Noll High by men and women who are the spiritual descendants of Fr. Marquette. Our principal, Father Junk, leads them as Fr. Marquette led the missionaries in his day. The curriculum of Bishop Noll High exemplifies the fact that the Church is still a leader in secular as well as religious matters. Thus the ideals of our patron, Fr. Marquette, live on almost three centuries after his death.

Class History

In September, 1943, we eagerly awaited our new experience as high school students. The opportunity was ours and it was up to us to prove our worth. In the field of athletics we were very well represented. Besides our regular studies, extra-curricular activities attracted us, for the Bi-Phy-Chem, Tri-Opus and Choral Club had many outstanding members from the class of '47. Last year it was our privilege to have the school paper printed for the first time. Our big endeavor, the Junior-Senior Prom, ended our third year with another success. Now, as Seniors, we are ready to don caps and gowns; we have reached our ultimate goal for we have proved ourselves to be true leaders.

With the joy of remembered success there will remain for us a profound sorrow that four of our classmates met their death through fatal accidents in our graduation year. Patricia Mold was struck by a car on her way to the tournament game during the Christmas holidays. Patricia Penny, John De Paoli, Michael Brillo, and a sophomore, Marilyn Buckley, were killed when the car in which they were riding was struck by a train.

Valedictorian

Graduating with top honors is Barbara Doyle, our Valedictorian. She is from All Saints Parish, Hammond. Noll has meant more to Barbara than just gaining an education, for she accepted the challenge of our extra-curricular activities and became a member of the Bi-Phy-Chem, Latin, G.A. A., Tri-Opus and Choral Clubs. She also served on the Hi-Lite and Marquette Staffs.

Secretarial work interests Barbara and she plans to attend Business College after graduation.

Salutatorian

George Obsitnik, our Salutatorian, ranks high in scholarship and leadership. His four years at Noll have been busy ones. The Bi-Phy-Chem claims George as a member, as do the Tri-Opus, Latin and French Clubs. His literary talents were displayed in the Hi-Lite on which he served as News Editor.

George hopes to continue his education at Purdue where he intends to study engineering. He is a member of Holy Trinity Parish, Gary.

LIVING ROSARY

Fathers' Club

Top Picture: Mr. W. White, vice-president; Mr. L. Tarney, secretary-treasurer; Mr. M. Markey, president; Mr. R. Austgen, Freshman vice-president.

Under the leadership of Mr. Norwood Markey, president, the Men's Club sponsored the Annual Athletic Banquet on February 4, 1947, with Mr. William Blake, an official of the Big Nine Conference, as guest speaker.

The Spring Bazaar was made a more profitable and enjoyable affair through the efforts of "The Dads." They have cooperated with the Mothers' Club both in the parties for the students and the Bingos. Through the splendid effort of the Men's Club, new banquet tables have been built. Three cheers for the Men's Club.

Mothers' Club

Row 1: Mrs. J. A. Dalton, president; Mrs. J. Buckley, recording secretary; Mrs. A. Nondori, corresponding secretary; Mrs. D. McNew, treasurer. Row 2: Mrs. W. Lynch, senior vice-president; Mrs. H. Kellman, junior vice-president; Mrs. A. Kaiser, sophomore vice-president; Mrs. J. Kretz, freshman vice-president.

Women are encouraged to take their place in society, to cease holding back, to drop their inferiority complexes, to compete with men, to stop hiding their talents in their homes and to come out and develop all their abilities for the betterment of Bishop Noll High.

This year the Mother's Club, under the able direction of Mrs. J. A. Dalton, has completed many activities. The vice-presidents of each section, through the cooperation of the parents, have sponsored many enjoyable parties for their respective classes. They have also gained funds for the new building by sponsoring activities.

As a group they have supported generously the Bazaar, Athletic Banquet, and the Sisters' Shower. One of the outstanding events sponsored by the Mother's Club is the breakfast given to the graduates and their parents.

Hats off to the women who have developed all their abilities by introducing and guiding children full of wonder through a world of wonders.

Mission Crusade

James DeVany, president; Kathryn Tallon, Secretary, and Dolores Benich, vice-president, arrange the Mission Bulletin Board, while Andrew Petrovich, Treasurer, examines a Catholic Magazine.

The true Catholic spirit of Bishop Noll High School is embedded in the Catholic Student Mission Crusade. This organization encourages the spiritual and financial aid of the students for the missions. Meetings are held in a general assembly on the First Friday of each month.

Notable activities sponsored throughout the year were the Lenten Retreat, given by Father J. Costello; a performance of a "Dry Mass" in the Eastern Rite, by Father G. Mureson; and a Holy Hour, all well attended by the students.

Sincere thanks are to be given to the students for their splendid cooperation in all the Mission drives.

Bi-Phy-Chem

To be a member of the Bi-Phy-Chem is the ambition of every science student, not only because its activities are varied and interesting, but because it presents a challenge requiring one to excel in a scientific subject. This year, 1947, marks the centennial of one who would have made an ideal science club member, Thomas Alva Edison. From him many an example can be taken. His formal education comprised only three months, but due to his mother's diligent instruction and to his own scientific curiosity he gave to the world hundreds of inventions, his main ones being the electric light, the phonograph, and the motion picture. The Bi-Phy-Chem Club joins with scientists throughout the world in honoring his memory. This club has flourished under the sponsorship of Sister Mary Alma.

Row 1: Patricia Penny, Betty Bader, Mary Ellen Dalton.
Row 2: George Tricolas, Raymond Julian.

Tri-Opus

The aims of the Tri-Opus Club are to encourage efficiency and interest in Commercial subjects and to develop leadership through social activities. To achieve the first, each year typing students take part in the National Catholic High School Typing Contest.

The social activities sponsored by the Tri-Opus were varied. A Freshman Welcome Party was given at the beginning of the year, introducing the newcomers to the social life of the school. Sport dances after the games highlighted the football season. "Winter Fantasy," a semi-formal dance, was enjoyed by many at Christmas time. Senior members of the Tri-Opus presented the Junior-Senior Amateur Show, while the juniors took credit for the Freshman-Sophomore Amateur Show. At the Senior Spring Luncheon, awards were given for proficiency in bookkeeping, shorthand, and typing, climaxing a successful social year for the club. The club functioned under the direction of Sister Marie Jeanne.

The MAGNIFICAT, dedicated to Our Lady, is published by the sophomore class. The purpose of this annual publication is to encourage good student writing.

Under the splendid supervision of Sister M. Josephita, the entire staff has done its share of work to make this publication possible.

We thank M. Brandt, B. Chatas, M. Gasvoda, J. M. Kaiser, N. Luna, J. Martin, J. Pribanich, and R. Villarreal for pounding away at the typewriters and setting up the dummy.

CHORAL CLUBS

Under the direction of the Reverend A. J. Junk and the Reverend F. Melevage, the two choral groups have achieved an enviable record for the year. A second operetta, "In Gay Havanna," is going into its fourth week of rehearsal as the Marquette goes to press.

BAND

Under the direction of the Reverend F. Melevage, the band members made several successful appearances during the year.

"The King of Peace," a pageant dramatizing the Five Joyful Mysteries, was presented by the students at Christmas time. Sister M. Edward directed the play, and the Choral Club, under the direction of Reverend F. Melavage, supplied the musical background. To the many people who enjoyed the performance, the pageant was an inspiring opening of the Christmas holidays, vivifying the spiritual theme of the season.

WRESTLING TEAM

Under the direction of Coach Keane and the captainship of Michael Brillo the wrestling teams have made a splendid record for this, their first year of competitive wrestling.

Coach R. Duax, a man of athletic experience, came to Noll after graduating from Saint Joseph's College, Rensselaer. He was with us three years before joining the Armed Forces. After having served nineteen months, 1944 to 1946, in the Army, he returned to his coaching career here at Noll.

MONOGRAM CLUB

- Row 1: Murray Pierce, John McLaughlin, Richard Hill, Robert Mayden, Stanley Jasinski, George Badovich, John Seyda, Joseph Radvansky.
 Row 2: Gerald Enright, Thomas McDevitt, John Ratajczak, Raymond Julian, Roman Mach, Benedict Sandrick, Edward Berkowicz, John Adams.
 Row 5: Donald Lauer, David Markovich, Bernard Barnes, Michael Hodor, Fred Opat, Paul Richwalski.

Coach J. Keane, a graduate of St. Joseph's College, Rensselaer, came to Noll in 1946 after serving four years in the Armed Services.

Before joining the Army, Coach Keane had experienced four years of football and baseball in college. He has been a great factor in the fine showing of athletics we have had this year.

STUDENT MANAGERS

AMERICAN TRADITION

• Quality, Integrity and Dependability have established themselves as a definite tradition with Pontiac. We have been constantly on the alert for new and improved procedures in yearbook designing and service. Our modern precision equipment is concrete evidence of adherence to this policy. Our experienced craftsmen and servicemen are carefully supervised by experts in the field of distinctive school publications. We are proud to have played a part in the publishing of this book in the capacity of official photo engravers. Our entire personnel congratulate the staff for their splendid work and cooperation.

Engravings by Pontiac Engraving and Electrotyping Co., Chicago, Illinois.

Printing by The Times Record Company, Alton, Illinois.

Binding by Pfisterer's Bindery, Galesburg, Illinois.

The first part of the paper discusses the importance of understanding the cultural context of the research. It highlights the need for researchers to be sensitive to the values and beliefs of the communities they are studying. This is particularly important in the field of education, where cultural differences can significantly impact learning outcomes. The paper then moves on to discuss the challenges of conducting research in culturally diverse settings. It notes that researchers often face difficulties in establishing rapport with participants and in interpreting their responses. To address these challenges, the paper suggests several strategies, including the use of local researchers and the development of culturally appropriate research instruments. The final part of the paper discusses the importance of sharing research findings with the community. It argues that research should not only be conducted for the benefit of the community but also for the benefit of the community itself. This means that researchers should work closely with community members to ensure that their research is relevant and useful to them. The paper concludes by emphasizing the need for a collaborative approach to research, one that recognizes the strengths and contributions of all those involved.

The first part of the paper discusses the importance of understanding the cultural context of the research. It highlights the need for researchers to be sensitive to the values and beliefs of the communities they are studying. This is particularly important in the field of education, where cultural differences can significantly impact learning outcomes. The paper then moves on to discuss the challenges of conducting research in diverse cultural settings. It notes that researchers often face difficulties in establishing rapport with participants and in interpreting their responses. To address these challenges, the paper suggests several strategies, including the use of local researchers and the development of culturally appropriate research instruments. The final part of the paper discusses the importance of ethical considerations in cross-cultural research. It emphasizes the need for researchers to obtain informed consent from participants and to ensure that their research does not cause harm or exploitation. The paper concludes by noting that while cross-cultural research presents many challenges, it is also a valuable way to gain a deeper understanding of the world and to develop more effective educational practices.

Table 1. Mean (SD) age, height, weight, and body mass index (BMI) of the 100 children in the study

Measure	Mean (SD)
Age (years)	10.4 (0.5)
Height (cm)	145.2 (10.1)
Weight (kg)	38.5 (10.2)
BMI (kg m <sup>-2</sup> )	18.6 (3.2)

children were asked to perform a series of 10 trials of the task. The first trial was a practice trial and the remaining 9 trials were recorded. The mean of the last 9 trials was used for analysis. The children were then asked to perform the task again, but this time they were asked to perform the task as fast as they could. The mean of the last 9 trials was used for analysis.

The children were then asked to perform the task again, but this time they were asked to perform the task as slowly as they could. The mean of the last 9 trials was used for analysis.
